The orientation internship ("EOP") is the first in-school training for teacher training students at TU Dortmund University (paragraph 12 LABG of the examination regulations). It consists of at least 25 work days and a total of at least 60 hours in the school.

You should specify the precise period of five weeks.

You can choose one of the following options:

For primary school education:

For grammar/secondary school education:

For vocational education:

The school accepts the student for the period specified above.